

Beyond Counting:

Strategies to Collect and (Actually) Use Your FTC Data

FTC Practice Academy 2022
Beyond Collaboration to Results

VIEW THE VIDEO PRESENTATION

DOWNLOAD OUR EXPLORATION TOOL

August 30, 2022 | 11:00 am – 12:30 pm (PT) | 2:00 pm – 3:30 pm (ET)

COMPLETE OUR EVALUATION

1 WELCOME & OPENING REMARKS

Robert Rosenhaus, Center for Children and Family Futures

2 INTRODUCTION OF PANELISTS

3 LIVE CONVERSATION

Ask the panelists your questions live or join the conversation in the chat box.

4 BREAKOUT ROOMS

Join panelists in their breakout rooms for more conversation.

5 NEXT STEPS & RESOURCES

This project is supported by Grant # 2019-DC-BX-K013 awarded by the Office of Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention, Office of Justice Programs, U.S. Department of Justice. The opinions, findings, and conclusions or recommendations expressed in this publication/program/exhibition are those of the author(s) and do not necessarily reflect those of the Department of Justice.

MEET OUR PANELISTS

Dr. Mikala Meize-Bowers is a Senior Research Associate at the Washington State Center for Court Research (WSCCR) in the Washington Administrative Office of the Courts. She works with the Behavioral Health Unit to monitor performance, evaluate, and provide technical assistance for therapeutic courts across the state. Over the last year, she has worked with Family Treatment Courts to develop their data, learn how to monitor key metrics, and to use that data to make changes to practices and policies. Dr. Meize-Bowers earned her PhD in Criminal Justice and Criminology from Washington State University where her research focused on the effects of cannabis legalization on juvenile and criminal justice systems.

MIKALA MEIZE-BOWERS, PHD

Senior Research Associate
Washington State Center for Court Research
Olympia, Washington

Ashley Armstrong is the Family Treatment Court Project Coordinator for the Greene County Family Treatment Court ("FTC") located in Springfield, MO. Ashley officially took on her current role as the FTC Project Coordinator in January 2022. However, Ashley has been employed with the Greene County Juvenile Office since April 2017, initially serving as a general Deputy Juvenile Officer in the Child Abuse & Neglect Unit until taking on the specialized FTC Deputy Juvenile Officer (DJO) role in October 2020. Prior to her work at the Juvenile Office, Ashley earned her Bachelor of Science degrees in Criminology and Psychology from Missouri State University in 2015 and gained employment experience through working with youth involved in the justice system and providing community support to adults with mental health diagnoses.

ASHLEY ARMSTRONG

FTC Project Coordinator
Greene County Juvenile Office
Springfield, MO

Mr. Shah is a policy and research focused social worker with a strong commitment to serving the needs of disadvantaged children, youth, and adults; including special-needs populations, adults with mental health or substance use disorders and children in the child welfare system. He has spent the last 6 years working for the Center for Children and Family Futures as an evaluator, technical assistance provider and program manager. His experience in direct service, policy, and research and evaluation allows him to navigate complex systems of care and provide consultation to systems and program across the country. He is currently the Program Manager/Senior Associate for the National Quality Improvement Center for Collaborative Community Court Teams initiative. Mr. Shah received a Master of Social Work from the University of Southern California and a Bachelor of Arts in International Studies with a minor in Humanities and Law from the University of California, Irvine.

ASHAY SHAH

Senior Program Associate
Center for Children and Family Futures
ashah@cffutures.org

MEET OUR CONVERSATION HOST

Robert Rosenhaus serves as a Senior Program Associate with the National Family Drug Court Training and Technical Assistance Program at the Center for Children and Family Futures. In this role, he serves as an advisor and technical consultant to states, counties, tribes, and regions across the country in issues related to substance abuse, child welfare and the courts, providing and coordinating various levels of technical assistance. Prior to this role, Robert worked for the New York State court system for over 15 years in various positions all aimed at making systemic changes to improve outcomes for children and families served. Robert has extensive experience facilitating multidisciplinary collaborative groups consisting of local and state stakeholders, strategic planning, data analysis, and using a Continuous Quality Improvement process to improve outcomes.

ROBERT ROSENHAUS

Senior Program Associate
Center for Children and Family Futures
rosenhaus@cffutures.org