CRYSTAL J.

Family Peer Mentor

Trumbull County Children's Services START Team

Trumbull County, OH

My name is Crystal and I am a Family Peer Mentor for Trumbull County Children Services. I have been in this role for over 3 years and love being a support and hope shot for my clients. I am blessed to say I have over 7 years in recovery and have remained active in the recovery community throughout this time. Being able to share my experience, strength, and hope, along with my struggles to help others is my favorite part of the job. Helping others navigate through this thing we call life, being a support and a resource to help lift barriers and give a fighting chance for parents, is what motivates me to keep pushing.

ANNE AULD

Director of Education

Illuminate Colorado

Denver, CO

Anne Auld, B.S., offers over 20 years working with children and families, with the last 10 years focused on child maltreatment prevention. She has served as the Director of Education for Illuminate Colorado since 2015, and is trained as a facilitator in a variety of areas including substance use and families, protective factors, ACEs, abusive head trauma, and child sexual abuse prevention. Anne is co-developer of the Conversation Guide for Professionals on Substance Use, Children, & Families (a branch of the Smart Choices Safe Kids campaign), as well as a trainer and curriculum developer for the Colorado Child Welfare Training System. She has presented at national and international conferences on related issues.

JENNIFER FOLEY

Senior Program Associate
Center for Children and Family Futures
jfoley@cffutures.org

Ms. Foley is as a Senior Program Associate at Children and Family Futures (CFF). In this role, she serves as an advisor and technical consultant to states, counties, tribes, and regions across the country in issues related to substance abuse, child welfare, and the courts, providing and coordinating various levels of technical assistance for multiple projects. She has dedicated herself to women with substance abuse issues for over 25 years. Originally from California, she moved to Oregon for college, receiving a B.S. degree from the University of Oregon in Sociology, with an area of concentration in Substance Abuse and Prevention. She spent 11 years in Eugene at the Relief Nursery's Accessing Success Recovery Support Program. Initially a Peer Support Specialist, she advanced to Alcohol & Drug Counselor, eventually managing the Recovery Support Program for six years. Her focus was serving parents with substance use disorders involved in child welfare. In 2006, she spent seven years as a caseworker within Child Welfare. In 2013, she accepted the position as the Women's Treatment Services Coordinator and the Access to Recovery Project Director with the Oregon Health Authority, and Oregon's (NASADAD) Women's Service Network Coordinator.
